

MINORU YASUI DAY • 2024

PLEASE JOIN US ONLINE OR IN-PERSON!

ADVANCING DEMOCRACY IN THE FACE OF CURRENT THREATS

FREE EVENT
SATURDAY, APRIL 6, 2024
1:00PM-3:00PM PDT
UNIVERSITY OF OREGON
WHITE STAG BUILDING
70 NW COUCH STREET
PORTLAND, OR 97209

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

WELCOME & ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS	Sharon Maeda, Spectra Communications
KEYNOTE SPEAKER	Rep. Khanh Pham
TRIBUTE TO HOMER YASUI & MATSUTAKE FILM	Mari Hayman, granddaughter of Homer Yasui, honors his legacy and shares award winning film, Matsutake , by Producer Mari Hayman and Director Theodore Caleb.
PANEL DISCUSSION Panelists to discuss their activism in Advancing Democracy in the Face of Current Threats and provide a call to action.	Moderator: Sharon Maeda, Spectra Communications Panel: Rebecca Asaki, Tsuru for Solidarity; Amy Herzfeld-Copple, Executive Director of Western States Center; Paul Susi, Project Facilitator for Oregon Humanities
ANNOUNCEMENT OF 2024 STUDENT CONTEST WINNERS	Jillian Toda-Currie, Minoru Yasui Legacy Project Student Contest Committee Member
CLOSING & COLLECTIVE CALL TO ACTION	Barbara Yasui, Minoru Yasui Legacy Project Education Committee Member: Share your voice and closing.
RECEPTION	Please join us at the Japanese American Museum of Oregon for a reception following the event.

HOSTED BY:

The Minoru Yasui Legacy Project in collaboration and the Japanese American Museum of Oregon with special thanks to the University of Oregon for their generous support in providing the venue for our event.

REGISTER HERE

bit.ly/minoru-yasui-day-2024

